Through term time they run cookery sessions with children in schools, inspiring youngsters to cook, taste, understand and enjoy their food. Then during the holidays we welcome them into our school to share their enthusiasm and expertise.

The sessions are specially devised to develop a range of skills from planning & preparation through to cooking and presenting. There will be two sessions per day the morning session 10am-12pm is for smaller cooks from years four, five and six.

The afternoon session 1pm to 4pm is aimed at children of high school age.
